3565 POLICE AND PUBLIC FORUM

The Police were present and gave a report about :

- The success of the Neighbourhood Alliance initiative
- The relative calm on mischievous night
- Domestic burglaries – which had dropped dramatically
- The PACT meeting on 8/11/10 – the priority was still anti social behaviour at Radburn shops.
- The Bonfire Event – alcohol was confiscated from minors
- Atterby Park Play Area – anti social behaviour was reducing

It was also reported that major changes were taking place in the Police Force structures. It was too early to say how these could develop but they could possibly include the removal of Community Teams and a return to Sector Policing.

In the public forum the following issues were raised and briefly discussed :

- The Manor Farm Housing development – archaeological digs
- Rossington Lodge
- The emerging positive visual aspects of the village
